New Standard Orders Confirming Chapter 13 Plans

Please be advised of the following procedural changes concerning Orders Confirming Chapter 13 Plans or Amended Chapter 13 Plans.

Effective February 15, 2012, a new standard order (see samples below) will be used by all three of our bankruptcy judges to confirm all chapter 13 plans, including amended plans. Because the approved plan was docketed and served on all creditors, the new order confirming plan merely references the approved plan. This change will eliminate the need for the chapter 13 trustee or debtors' attorneys to submit proposed chapter 13 confirmation orders.

(Motions to amend the confirmation order will be considered by the Court for cause. Any party in interest may opt to file such a motion if they feel justified, not just the Debtor.)

For questions concerning this change please send an email to the Court at:
